PETITION FOR LEAVE TO AMEND

Glendale Broadcasting Company (Glendale), by its attorneys, now petitions for leave to amend its application in accordance with the attached amendment.

The amendment reports changes in the ownership interests of Glendale stockholders George Gardner and Mary Anne Adams in Raystay Co., which, as reflected in the application and the record in this proceeding, holds various media interests. The amendment is being filed pursuant to Section 1.65 of the Commission's rules. Glendale explicitly disclaims any comparative advantage that could result from acceptance of this amendment.

While this amendment is technically untimely (the changes in question occurred in August), no prejudice to any party would result from acceptance of this amendment. George Gardner still owns over three-quarters of Raystay's voting stock. If anything, the reduction in his voting stock interest would improve Glendale's comparative position. As noted above, however, Glendale is disclaiming any comparative advantage from this amendment. Without disputing that the information should be reported to update the information in the application, the changes being reported are insignificant.

Accordingly, Glendale asks the Presiding Judge to accept the attached amendment.

Respectfully submitted,
